American Scenery, Vol. 1

Nathaniel Parker Willis (1806 - 1867)

Although the focus of this book is the engravings depicting scenic sites of 19th century America, each is accompanied by a short description of the site and location. These vignettes give us rare glimpses of scenic locations as they appeared in 1840. All sites are in the eastern part of the United States, especially New England and New York. This is volume one of a two-volume set. Visit <http://www.gutenberg.org/ebooks/49042> to view the numerous illustrations from the book.
